How Germany Went Down To Crushing Defeat

Stirring events in the great world war have followed one upon the other with such bewildering swiftness recently that the various changes leading up to the present situation are not clear in the public mind.

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week—October 26th—clarifies the war news so as to give the reader a grasp of the entire subject. That "only military reasons" could have compelled the groveling Teuton pleas for peace was clear enough even if a leading German newspaper had not made the confession.

This article treats every angle of the war and will be read with enthusiasm by the American public. It is illustrated by a large full-page colored Map with a complete index.

Other articles of special importance in the October 26th "Digest" are:

- Passing Sentence on the Kaiser and His People
A Review by the American and European Press of Germany's Pleas for Peace
More U-Boat Savagery
France's Storied Fields
Germany's Colonial Crimes
Europe Admiring Yankee Teeth
Seeing Through Brick Walls
