☐ Complete the online application.
  o https://catalyst.uw.edu/webq/survey/newlead/319668 o We recommend that you write your essays in a text document first and then copy and paste them into the application so that your responses are not lost in the event of a server error or loss of power.
  o Essay questions:
    1. What motivated you to apply to be a part of this program? (900-1,000 characters)
    2a. Briefly describe your involvement and/or leadership in any of the following categories: community or campus organizations, clubs, paid employment, volunteer service, internships, and/or other groups. (max. 500 characters)
    2b. Please pick one of your activities listed above and discuss how it has positively influenced or changed you. (max. 500 characters)
    3. What do you see as the most crucial public policy issue affecting women today? Why is this important to you? (900-1,000 characters)
    4. Please list two areas (for example, public speaking, situational confidence, etc.) in which you wish to gain personal improvement through your participation in the Institute and describe why. (max. 500 characters)
