Mill Operations Supervisor

Inland Empire Paper Company is a state-of-the-art paper manufacturing facility in Spokane, Washington. We seek an experienced and highly motivated individual for Mill Operations Supervisor in a 24/365 environment.

 Responsibilities (other duties may be assigned):
• Provide daily manufacturing process support to improve production efficiencies including troubleshooting issues, data management and analysis.
• Work with department superintendent to develop/upgrade processes to maximize capacity utilization, minimize cost and increase performance while maintaining environmental protection; includes working with department superintendents as requested to assist with process development experiments, research and assessment of potential technology.
• Supervision of union employee workforce on a daily basis including training, safety, development and discipline.
• Significant monitoring of operations and reporting including verbal and written reports to management on daily activities.
• Work closely with operations and maintenance in team environment to monitor and improve efficiency, output and safety of plant.

Qualifications:
• Bachelor’s degree in project management, business or related field preferred.
• Minimum 3 years field/plant work and supervisory experience
• Strong analytical skills to organize, interpret and draw conclusions from data.
• Ability to communicate diplomatically and effectively with plant operations, maintenance and/or technical advisors to solve problems and execute solutions.
• Above average organizational skills; project management skills including the ability to provide reports both verbal and written.
• Computer proficiency in Microsoft Office; familiarity with distributed control systems a plus.
• Demonstrated leadership skills especially related to change management
• Knowledge of pulp and paper manufacturing desired, but not required
• Schedule rotation to cover 24/365 operation required
• Non-smoking, drug-free workplace

Qualified individuals are requested to forward their resume to humanresources@iepco.com.
Your application to this posting is deemed to be your consent to the collection, use and necessary disclosure of personal information for the purposes of recruitment. Privacy of all applicants and the confidentiality of personal information are respected. Thank you to all applicants for your interest and effort in applying for this position; however, only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.