Project Position – Waste Water Treatment

Inland Empire Paper Co has an opening for a full-time project position working with our waste water treatment project.

Job Expectations:
Supervise project operations of trial equipment including sampling, data collection, laboratory testing, data analysis, daily log maintenance, and troubleshooting equipment operations, preparing daily reports, as well as other tasks relating to R&D activities, Position will report to the Environmental Manager and work closely with Environmental Engineer. Primary hours for this position will be: day shift, 8 hr shifts, including weekend days anticipated for 12 months, beginning immediately.

Basic Qualifications:
- Have successfully completed some coursework in science or engineering program or a graduate program; overall GPA of 3.0 or above desired.
- Strong written and oral communication skills with technical writing experience.
- Must be able to effectively multi-task and work on several project assignments simultaneously.
- Proficient in Microsoft Suite, especially Excel
- Experience and/or coursework in water/wastewater treatment preferred
- Previous related experience preferred but not required.

Inland Empire Paper Company upholds a proud tradition as a manufacturer of high quality newsprint and specialty paper products. We have continuously operated in Millwood, Washington since 1911– a fact attributed to our employees and their dedication to excellence. Today IEP supplies paper to over 120 customers throughout the western United States and produces over 530 tons of newsprint and specialty products every day.

Qualified individuals are requested to forward their resume to humanresources@iepco.com. Your application is deemed to be your consent to the collection, use and necessary disclosure of personal information for the purposes of recruitment. Privacy of all applicants and the confidentiality of personal information are respected. Thank you to all applicants for your interest and effort in applying for this position; however, only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.