Paper Machine Shift Supervisor

Key elements /Job duties

- Insuring good housekeeping and promote and support a safe and engaging culture safety practices throughout the operation
- Insuring good housekeeping and safety practices throughout the operation
- Enforce Company policies and procedures while maintaining a supportive work environment
- Participating in supervisory, safety and other appropriate meetings where subjects such as safety, quality, and other related operational problems are discussed
- Inspecting operations, assuring that equipment is in proper operating condition, and that established production standards are satisfied
- Monitoring and adjusting operations to satisfy customer expectations
- Willingness to work diverse hours, including rotating shifts, weekends and holidays
- Participating in team efforts to achieve mill-wide goals
- Reviewing operations continually to introduce methods or procedures which will achieve economics in operation or quality improvement
- Safety – Weekly safety audit are required; must support mill’s effort to drive an injury-free culture
- Must be willing to work rotating shifts (some holidays and weekends included), and respond to calls after hours.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Required:

- High School Diploma or GED minimum requirement; Chemical/Pulp & Paper Engineering degree preferred
- Excellent communication and interpersonal and has a proven ability to communicate at all levels
- 3 - 5 Years of Pulp & Paper experience
- Self-starter
- Previous supervisory experience a plus

If you have ALL of the required qualifications for this position and are skeptical about sending in a resume to someone you have never spoken with, give us a call. We try to rise above the recruiting rhetoric by giving our contact information in order to provide you as much information as possible. We go to great lengths to work directly with the hiring managers for the positions we represent so our job descriptions truly reflect the needs of the organization.

To apply, please email resume and current/last base salary to:

Elizabeth Tischer

Elizabeth@duetrecruiting.com