DECEMBER 2004 Vol. 6 No. 6

7 Letter
8 From the Editor
10 In Brief Ten drug and alcohol policies (at some lives: Topiramate, a potential new medication for treating alcoholism: Advocates to addiction treatment industry: Is it time for a new slogan?

14 MANAGING CHRONIC PAIN AND PRESCRIPTION DRUG ABUSE
Learn to navigate the complexities of chronic pain and prescription drug abuse treatment, and help your clients become active participants in their healing. By Stephen P. Greenshaw, PhD

23 Policy Addiction Medication: Impact on Counselors By Joseph Merril, MD, MPH

26 THE RULES OF SELF-DISCLOSURE
When should you disclose your personal story to clients? By Nicholas A. Ries, PhD

32 Opinion Outcomes, They're Not Just About Treatment Anymore: By Tim Sheehan, PhD, LP

34 ATHLETES AND ADDICTION COUNSELING: A PSYCHOSOCIAL MODEL OF PREVENTION AND TREATMENT
Discover an approach to prevention and treatment designed specifically for athletes, no matter what their game or level. By William A. Housaw, PhD, BCD, ICADC

38 Pharm Report It's Called Doping: Tetrahydrogestrinone (THG) By Cardwell C. Nuckols, PhD

41 GIFTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS — THE TWELVE STEPS OF PARENTING
Uncover the wisdom of the Twelve Steps of Parenting — gifts with the power to help families give and receive lasting love. By Patricia O’Gorman, PhD

46 Alternative Therapies Somatic Experiencing® By Maya Youngblood, MA, LPC, LMFT

49 THE URGENT NEED FOR CONTINUING CARE WITH ADOLESCENTS:
RECENT RESEARCH AND RECOMMENDATIONS
Find out how the Assertive Continuing Care Model differs from traditional aftercare programs — research say that ACC is what adolescents need. By Mark Godley, PhD, and Julie B. Pepton, LSW

55 First Person A Melancholy Reflection on Adolescent Treatment By Frank Comahan, PhD

57 HALF-WAY HOUSES BUILD BRIDGES TO RECOVERY
Have you pictured life in a halfway house? Explore how residents of Hazelden’s 50-year-old Fellowship Club benefit from a structured living environment that supports their recovery. By Brenda Riff and Carol Halrosard

63 Professional Development Knowing Your Client: How Testing Can Help By Sylvie Kay Fisher, PhD, and Ronnie Fisher, ES

67 On the Web In Online search of Physician Fees By Stuart Gitlow, MD

69 Research To Practice Suicidal Behavior and Alcohol By Michael J. Saleig, PhD, CSAT, MAC

71 Q & A Art Therapy in Treating Disorders By Jennifer Wata-Wollenberg, MS, ATR

73 Referral Directory

81 CE Quiz Earn CE credits with this quiz.

82 Advertisers Index

www.counselormagazine.com 5