CONTENTS
JULY/AUGUST 2002 • VOLUME 22, NUMBER 4

COVER STORIES
16 ...... Managed Care: At the Heart of Parity
    This year Congress has given parity a second look—and perhaps a second wind to managed care?
    by Douglas J. Edwards, Assistant Editor

32 ...... Accreditation: Necessary or Optional?
    Most behavioral healthcare organizations need to address four key questions to answer this by Joseph P. Naughton-Travers, PhD

FEATURE ARTICLES
22 ...... Post-Crisis Stress Debriefings: More Harm Than Good?
    The 9/11 era has pointed up strengths and weaknesses
    by Gerald Lewis, PhD

26 ...... Drawing Attention to the Mentally Ill
    NARSAD Artworks displays the art of the mentally ill
    by Douglas J. Edwards, Assistant Editor

38 ...... Treatment Considerations for Pedophilia
    New to the headlines, but an old treatment conundrum. Some guidelines
    by Matthew Rosenberg, MSW, CSW

42 ...... After Managed Care: Throwing Out the Baby With the Bath Water?
    If direct contracting is The Next Great Idea, managed care can still offer a few good ideas
    by Bruce A. Maloof, PhD

44 ...... IT Procurement: More Than Features and Functions Providers should seek vendors’ help in becoming IT-ready by Ann M. Boughtin, MA, MPA

DEPARTMENTS
6 ...... Editorial
    Compliance: Are We Really Up to Speed?
    by Monica E. Oss, Editor-in-Chief

8 ...... Washington Insights
    Drug Policy: Time to “Just Say No” to Punishment?
    by Michael J. Stoil, PhD

10 ...... Technology Solutions
    HIPAA’s Big Hit on IT Planning
    by Monica E. Oss and Stacey Biggins

46 ...... Product Spotlight

47 ...... Advertiser Index/Classifieds

48 ...... Views From the Trenches
    HIPAA: It Just Won’t Go Away
    by J. Chip Drotos, MSW, CEAP, Associate Publisher