NICOTINE & TOBACCO RESEARCH

Addressing Tobacco in Managed Care

Volume 4 Supplement 1 2002

What's new in Nicotine & Tobacco Research?

INTRODUCTION

Addressing tobacco in managed care: documenting the challenges and potential for systems-level change
S. J. Curry, M. C. Fiore, C. T. Orleans, P. Keller

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

The feasibility of paper-based Tracking Codes and electronic medical record systems to monitor tobacco-use assessment and intervention in an Individual Practice Association (IPA) Model health maintenance organization (HMO)
C. J. Bentz, N. Davis, B. Bayley

Pilot study of enhanced tobacco-cessation services coverage for low-income smokers
M. F. Doescher, M. A. Whinston, A. Goo, D. Cummings, J. Huntington, B. G. Saver

Smoking cessation in pregnancy: failure of an HMO pilot project to improve guideline implementation
L. M. Latts, A. V. Prochazka, N. M. Salas, D. A. Young

Capturing tobacco status using an automated billing system: steps toward a tobacco registry
T. McAfee, R. Grossman, S. Dacey, J. McClure

Academic profiling of tobacco-related performance measures in primary care
S. H. Swartz, T. M. Cowan, J. DePue, M. G. Goldstein

Acknowledgment
The editors wish to thank the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation for its support of Nicotine & Tobacco Research through Grant #033389.