HIV CASE MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP SERIES
By: Melissa Murphy, MD
Research & Education Group
Portland, Oregon

PURPOSE:
HIV Case Management workshops help to provide a consultative team approach with an opportunity for physicians to present challenging cases which include focused clinical problems for consideration and feedback among their peers, in order to render the best decisions possible for managing HIV patient care.

OBJECTIVES:
Upon completions of this educational activity, participants will learn to:
▪ Evaluate along with the experts, the latest updates in medications and treatment options for the HIV patient ▪ Share as a consultative function to determine appropriate management options of individual patients
▪ Discuss patient cases for determination of best outcomes
▪ Implement most appropriate patient care plans
