Attention Portland Metropolitan Area Media Educators!
SAVE THE DATE: Nov. 5, 2004 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Media Educators Summit
INSPIRE • CONNECT • EXCHANGE

Are you working to empower youth as critical viewers and producers of media messages? Are you involved in harnessing the potential of visual media for civic and educational purposes in schools or community settings? If so, this event is for you.

What to expect
- Inspiring presentations from leading youth media organizations and projects around the U.S.
- An opportunity to meet other Portland metro area media educators and learn more about each other's strengths and resources
- A chance to identify common needs and issues, setting the stage for greater collaboration among media educators in the future

Who should attend
- Media educators and program managers involved in community media/technology and media arts programs
- Middle and high school teachers involved in media studies and/or utilizing multimedia to engage students in traditional subject matter
- Other community-based media educators

Brought to you by...
Portland Community Media and Tualatin Valley Television.
