Build Quiz

Add questions or general content to your quiz by selecting an item from the drop-down menu and clicking Add. View examples of question types.

| Add item: | Short response | at end of quiz | Add |

Page 1

Position 1: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
What sort of information might you retrieve from Lexis-Nexis that you would not expect to find in PubMed?

Answers
- Medical information
- Business information
- State codes
- Newspapers

Question 1.
Point value: 0

Position 2: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
In the hierarchy of US law, which of the following dominates over the rest?

Answers
- County/City Ordinances
- State Statutes (RCW)
- Agency Guidelines
- Federal Statutes (CFR)

Question 2.
Point value: 0

Position 3: Multiple choice - multiple answers (check)

Question
Which of the following normative principles of ethics is (are) captured by the Hippocratic Oath?
Select all that are correct.

Answers
- Justice
- Nonmaleficence
- Beneficence
- Autonomy
- Virtue

Question 3.
Point value: 0

Position 4: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
Which of the following makes it necessary to take this law class and pass the Multistate Pharmacy
Jurisprudence Examination? Like, why not make the class an elective, and dump the MPJE?

Answers
- The US Constitution
- Bill of Rights
- The Food, Drug & Cosmetic Act
- The Pure Food and Drug Act

Feedback
... specifically, the 10th Amendment: The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people. The fed's can't (under current law) regulate the practice of pharmacy, with the narrow exception of DEA requirements that apply to any of the health care professions involved.

Question 4.

Point value: 0

Position 5: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
Who makes common law?

Answers
- Legislatures
- Courts
- Agencies

Point value: 0

Question 5.

Position 6: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
An appellate court’s establishment of a certain rule of law must be followed by all the lower courts in that jurisdiction. This concept is called:

Answers
- common law
- precedent
- preemption

Point value: 0

Question 6.

Position 7: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
When acts have been approved by the proper authorities (i.e., congress/legislature → president/governor), they are arranged in a systematic collection. This process is called:

Answers
- cataloging
- codification
- systematization

Point value: 0

Question 7.

Position 8: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
In bioethics discussions, what is the correct meaning of the term “justice”?

Answers
- judgment of persons or causes by judicial process
- done or made according to principle; equitable

Point value: 0
Position 9: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
From the following list, what is the correct sequential relationship for these federal documents and organizations?

- Act
- Agency
- Bill
- Code of Federal Regulations (CFR)
- Federal Register (FR)
- United States Code (USC)

Answers
- Bill → Act → CFR → Agency → FR → USC
- Act → Agency → Bill → CFR → FR → USC
- Bill → Act → USC → Agency → FR → CFR

Question 9.

Position 10: Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question
What are the consequences of federal preemption?

Answers
- less restrictive federal rules prevail over state rules
- more restrictive state rules prevail over federal rules
- less restrictive state rules prevail over federal rules

Question 10.