Dispensing diclofenac potassium tablets instead of diclofenac sodium is called ---

- therapeutic substitution
- therapeutic equivalence
- none of the above

The RCW 69.41.190 allows pharmacists to substitute refills for

- bipolar disorders
- hodgkins lymphoma
- epilepsy
- AIDS

Which of the following may be used by animal control officials for sedation prior to euthanasia or animal capture?
Question 4
The following records are exempt from Washington public disclosure except:

- the NPJE exams for this year
- pharmacist's home address
- pharmacist licensure status
- drug sample information from manufacturer

Question 5
Which one of the following statements is false about electronic prescriptions?

- They prevent medication errors
- They are cost effective
- They may compromise patient confidentiality
- They are a source of information for prescribers

Question 6
Which is NOT a factor that would determine your legal protection in the workplace:

- The number of employees at your work place
- Your religion
- Your previous military service
- The number of hours you work each week

Question 7
Which is NOT protected under labor laws?
Question 7.

- Employees with physical disabilities
- Employee safety at the workplace
- Employees' right to form a union
- Employees' right to earn a fair wage/salary
- Employees' right to have a fair vacation/time away from work schedule

Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question 8.

A pharmacy co-worker is listening to a podcast that has the volume turned up so loud that everyone in the pharmacy can hear it. This co-worker is listening to a comedy show where the comedian is telling jokes that you find offensive and hurtful; all of the other pharmacists are laughing. Since you are fairly shy and don't like confrontation, you've never spoken up about other issues before. However, in this case, you think that something needs to be done because these jokes are truly inappropriate and offensive. As an initial intervention, which of the following is the recommended course of action (per Professor Vaughn)?

- Decide not to say anything. Since the co-worker playing the podcast is a really hard worker, you decide that overlooking this incident would be best
- Speak with the podcast co-worker about your concerns
- Report the incident to the Pharmacy Manager
- File an incident report with the EEOC

Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question 9.

During a job interview, an employer could legally ask "Do you have the appropriate training and qualifications to perform this job?"

- True
- False

Multiple choice - one answer (button)

Question 10.

Which of the following is NOT true regarding reasonable accommodation?

Multiple choice - one answer (button)

https://catalysttools.washington.edu/webq
Question 10.

☑ An employer must plan ahead and anticipate different types of reasonable accommodations that could be requested
☐ Reasonable accommodations are not mandatory if providing the accommodation would cause an employer undue hardship
☐ If the need for an accommodation is not obvious, an employer may request documentation from the employee
☐ Requests for reasonable accommodations do not need to be met if the accommodation is associated with a significant expense.

Total points: 0

Add item: Short response at end of quiz Add

Save for later