Is Death Relative?
Navigating the Clinical Complexities Surrounding Brain Death

Discussion objectives:
• Identify ethical controversies surrounding brain death.
• Describe practical aspects of brain death determination.
• Discuss multi-disciplinary strategies to respectfully and professionally support families experiencing brain death of a loved one.

Monday, November 5, 2018
4:30-5:30 pm
Plaza Café Conference Room A/B

Claire Creutzfeldt, MD
Assistant Professor, Neurology

James A. Fausto, MD, Associate Professor, Family Medicine
Medical Director for Palliative Care, UW Medical Center

Denise M. Dudzinski, PhD, MTS
Professor and Chair, Bioethics & Humanities

ORGANIZED BY: James Kirkpatrick, MD, Chair of the UWMC Ethics Committee