

Annual Keynote Lecture

Adolescents, Mental Health, and HIV Prevention

hosted by CFAR Adolescent Health Scientific Working Group and Department of Global Health, Global Mental Health Program

Sybil Hosek, PhD

When: Tuesday,

November 13, 2018

Time: 5-6 pm

(followed by networking reception)

Where: HUB Room 250

Sybil Hosek, PhD, is a Clinical Psychologist/HIV Researcher in the Department of Psychiatry at Stroger Hospital of Cook County with over 18 years of experience in the development and implementation of HIV-related research studies and behavioral interventions. Her current research focuses on biomedical primary prevention interventions, for adolescents and young adults, including PrEP and microbicides, and the development of behavioral interventions to improve uptake and adherence to these new biomedical strategies.

