

The International Clinical Research Center

Specimen and Data Repository

- Description: Samples from two HIV-prevention clinical trials, and an observational study all conducted in Africa
 - ~2 million aliquots housed in Seattle
 - East & southern African HIV-1 serodifferent heterosexual couples (~8000 couples)
 - 12-36 months follow-up and ~300 HIV-1 seroconversion events
 - Participants consented for samples to be used in future studies of HIV, HIV-associated infections, and STIs
 - No linkage to personal identifiers
- Specimen Types: Serum, plasma, whole blood & blood spots, cryopreserved PBMCs, genital swabs/secretions, ...
- Data available:
 - Demographics
 - Longitudinal clinical (e.g., plasma VL); behavioral (e.g., sex freq, condom use)
 - Laboratory data from subsets of participants: HLA, plasma viral genome sequence, host genotype, female reproductive contraceptive hormone levels
- Charges: If grant funding is available – data management and specimen accession fees will be assessed
If grant funding is unavailable – waiver of charges will be considered
- For more information:
 - Send message to ICRCLabs@uw.edu with Subject heading: “Repository Request”