Dewey To Bid For South

Republican Candidate Will Seek Support in Territory Once Solidly Democratic

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will make a determined bid for support from the once "solid south" in the November presidential election. Republican national headquarters announced yesterday.

Herbert Brownell Jr. campaign manager for the Dewey-Warren ticket, said in a statement: "Thousands of southern voters are ready to vote for Dewey and Warren and for the establishment of a real two-party system in the south."

Brownell said many southerners "want to see their section of the United States become a free state. They insist on adhering blindly to one party which has given striking evidence on many occasions"
