Contents

Our Staff ............................................................................................................................................ ii

A Letter from the Dean: Sandra O. Archibald .................................................................................. iii

A Letter from the Editors: Matthew McCleary and Mary Waldron ........................................... iv-v

OPINION

Why Collaborate? Why Involve Universities? .................................................................................. 1-4
   By Michael Kern

RESEARCH

Increasing IUD Use in the United States: A Cost Consequences Study .................................. 5-25
   By Britni Bethune

A Benefit-Cost Analysis of Road Pricing in Downtown Seattle ................................................. 27-46
   By Steven Danna, Keibun Mori, Jake Vela & Michelle Ward

Universal Primary Education in Tanzania: The Role of School Expenses and Opportunity Costs ...................................................................................................................... 47-65
   By Caroline Dennis & Katie Stahley

Improving Health, Building Community: Exploring the Asset Building Potential of Community Gardens ...................................................................................................................... 66-84
   By Lindsey Jones

The GASB as a Contentious Accountability and Governance System in US Local Government ........................................................................................................................................ 85-103
   By Daniel Masterson & Ken Smith

Ranchers as Regulators: The Fight over America’s Public Lands through Public Lands Council v. Babbitt ........................................................................................................ 104-118
   By Kiana Scott

The Road to Perdition: Uzbekistan, Tajikistan, and the NDN ................................................. 119-133
   By Ruben Valencia