GME 102: New Program Director & Program Administrator Orientation

All Program Directors, Associate Program Directors and Program Administrators who have been in their roles for less than 3 years are invited to register. Attendance at this course is specific as a requirement of service and attendees will be trained by their peers and experts in practical topics designed to improve and develop the knowledge base required for oversight of new or established UW GME training programs.

WHEN: Friday January 20, 2017 from 8:00 am – 4:00 pm
WHERE: UW Medicine So. Lake Union – Orin Smith Auditorium (850 Republican Street)
DETAILS: CME Credit offered for in-person attendance (see details below).

Breakfast, Lunch and Parking Validations Provided!
Note: This event will be streamed live. Register below for further information.

REGISTER: https://catalyst.uw.edu/webq/survey/uwgme/318777

GME 102 Objectives

Following this event, participants will be able to...

1. Understand the educational expectations of GME programs within the medical education community.
2. Learn how others structure their programs to build a successful program.
3. Understand the structure, roles and mission of the UW Office of GME.
4. Interact with members of the UW GME community with similar needs and goals.

Accreditation:
The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 12.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. The July 29, 2016 session is 6.25 credits and the January 20, 2017 session is 6.5 credits.

Questions? Contact Christa Nemeth at cmnh@uw.edu or 206-616-8286