

Limericks

By E. Fetz

Said a certain Patrick D. Wall
In explaining the pain of it all,
“The pain in our brain
Lies mainly in the gain
Of a gate presynaptical”.

A certain Miss Bean was employed
In expounding the theories of Freud
But due to some hex
The subject of sex
She more often discussed than enjoyed.

I once had a teacher named Brzysky
Whose demeanor was not very frzysky.
He taught economics,
Not a subject for comics,
So his jokes could never be rzysky.

A physics professor named Morse
Proposed a potential whose curve was off course.
When he was asked why
His immediate reply
Was “the cause is of course my Morse force!”
