Pamela N. Corey Decoloniality and the Sensorium of Art History

11:00am PT | Friday, December 11

Register here

Dismantling the Canon, a UW Graduate Students of Art History (GSAH) Reading Group, is pleased to invite you to our first public lecture, "Decoloniality and the Sensorium of Art History," presented by Dr. Pamela N. Corey.

Dr. Corey is Lecturer (Assistant Professor) in South East Asian Art, Department of the History of Art & Archaeology, SOAS University of London. She researches modern and contemporary art history, focusing on Southeast Asia within broader transnational Asian and global contexts. Her research interests include theories of subjectivity, spatiality, diaspora, globalization, transnationalism, decoloniality, historiography, and visual and sonic aesthetics. Her talk will present her ongoing research, followed by a Q&A session.

Please register to be provided with a Zoom link and recommended reading materials.
