

Committee	Description
Advisory Committee on Student Conduct	The Advisory Committee on Student Conduct (Advisory Committee) is charged by the President with reviewing and evaluating student conduct processes and outcomes, making recommendations to the Faculty Council on Student Affairs (FCSA) for potential revisions to policies and procedures, and providing an annual report regarding student conduct at the University of Washington to the President and FCSA.
Advisory Council on Trademarks and Licensing	Consistent with our institutional goal of ensuring the humane and ethical treatment of workers, the UW has acted to uphold the rights of workers in factories that manufacture products with UW's name and logo.
Architectural Commission Student Member	The University of Washington Board of Regents established an architectural commission in December 1957 to advise the board and the president on matters concerning the design, function, performance, and environmental integrity of the university's buildings, landscapes, infrastructure, and urban amenities.
Arts and Sciences Advisory Council for Students	The Arts and Sciences Advisory Council for Students (ASACS) will advise the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences on issues relating to budgeting, tuition, financial aid, classroom improvement, curriculum, and other areas of importance for the college.
ASUW Off-Campus Housing Affairs Advisory Committee	The Associated Students of the University of Washington (ASUW) is the student government at the University of Washington. At ASUW, elected and hired employees and volunteers work to represent student voices on campus and provide programming, events, and resources in order for students to succeed, flourish, and enjoy college.
ASUW Office of Government Relations	The Associated Students of the University of Washington (ASUW) is the student government at the University of Washington. At ASUW, elected and hired employees and volunteers work to represent student voices on campus and provide programming, events, and resources in order for students to succeed, flourish, and enjoy college.
ASUW Senate	The Associated Students of the University of Washington (ASUW) is the student government at the University of Washington. At ASUW, elected and hired employees and volunteers work to represent student voices on campus and provide programming, events, and resources in order for students to succeed, flourish, and enjoy college.
Bias Incident Advisory Committee	This Bias Incident Reporting Tool is for NON-EMERGENCY incidents.
Board of Regents	The University of Washington Board of Regents governs and stewards the University in succession to past citizens, and for the benefit of present and future citizens of the State of Washington, as provided by statute.
Board of Student Publications	The purpose of the Board of Student Publications is to centralize authority and responsibility for general matters pertaining to The Daily of the University of Washington and Student Directory and other publications authorized by Board. The Publisher/Editorial Adviser, who is responsible to the Board, shall have the authority and responsibility for day-to-day operations of the publications.
Campus Sustainability Fund	The Campus Sustainability Fund (CSF) grew out of a vision of the student body to have a more substantive engagement with the University of Washington's sustainability efforts.
City/University Community Advisory Committee	To advise the City and the University on the orderly physical development of the greater University area
Student Disability Commission	Housed in the Associated Students of the University of Washington (ASUW), the Student Disability Commission is a student run and led advocacy organization committed to serving students, staff and faculty with disabilities at UW.
Committee on Student Records	A record of applicants for UW admission into an undergraduate, graduate, fellowship, or residency program, residence hall or student classification who were either denied; who were accepted but not entered; or who never completed the application process.
Dawg Pack	Dawg Pack grants full-time UW students access to all home Football and Men's Basketball games
Distinguished Teaching Awards Selection Committee	Award review committees will select recipients for the awards based on predefined criterias
Diversity Council	Membership on the Diversity Council is an opportunity to review and advocate for critical diversity issues
Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Advisory Committee	The advisory committee enables the board to more directly support and advance the University's goals on equity and inclusion and bring an equity and inclusion focus to pressing issues
Environmental Health and Safety Advisory Board	It is a University administrative unit that assists organizational units for health and safety
Environmental Stewardship Committee (ESC)	Environmental Stewardship Committee provides recommendations for environmental policies at the University of Washington
Faculty Council on Academic Standards	FCAS shall be responsible for matters of university policy relating to the academic affairs of the university, such as admissions policy, scholastic standards, university graduation requirements, and inter-institutional academic standards.
Faculty Council on Benefits and Retirement	FCBR shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to faculty retirement, insurance and benefits.

Faculty Council on Faculty Affairs	FCFA shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to the interests of the faculty, such as appointment, tenure, promotion, professional leave, compensation (including salary and fringe benefits), academic freedom, standards of academic performance, and professional ethics.
Faculty Council on Race, Equity, and Justice	FCREJ shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to the interests of Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC) faculty
Faculty Council on Research	FCR shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to research and scholarship.
Faculty Council on Student Affairs	FCSA shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to non-academic student affairs such as financial aid, housing, regulation of social affairs, eligibility rules, intercollegiate athletics, and general student welfare.
Faculty Council on Teaching and Learning	FCTL shall be responsible for all matters of policy, both academic and non-academic, relating to improvement of teaching and learning in the university; including distance learning, educational outreach, and summer quarter, and the use of educational technology in instruction.
Faculty Council on Tri-Campus Policy	FCTCP shall be responsible for matters of academic and non-academic policy between and among the campuses of the University of Washington.
Faculty Council on University Libraries	FCUL shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to libraries such as, but not limited to, collection development; services to students, faculty, and others; the system of libraries, including branch libraries; space needs; and budgetary requirements.
Faculty Council on Gender, Equity, and Justice	FCGEJ shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to the interests of gender, sexual orientation, and gender identity.
Faculty Council on Information Technology and Cybersecurity	FCITC shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to Information Technology and Security such as technology used for teaching and learning; videoconferencing; technology relating to hiring, merit, and promotion; collection and use of data; and research.
Faculty Senate Committee on Campus Planning and Stewardship	FCCPS shall be responsible for all matters of policy relating to campus planning and specifically for reviewing and advising the administration on all matters relating to the physical environment of the campuses and other properties as they contribute to and affect the mission, goals, and quality of life at the University, including those relating to capital project prioritization, planning, and development; inclusive project processes and design considerations; adequacy and continuous improvement of campus learning environments; maintenance and improvements of campus landscapes; and attention to transportation, mobility, and accessibility.
Faculty Senate Executive Committee	The Senate Executive Committee (SEC) sets Faculty Senate agendas, helps the senate conduct business per the Faculty Code, and facilitates communication between the president and the faculty.
Faculty Senate Legislative Representative	The duties shall be to represent the faculty in all matters of legislation affecting the university, and, to the extent necessary, to attend sessions of the state legislature and appear before legislative committees on behalf of the faculty.
Faculty Senate Advisory Committee on Faculty Code and Regulations	The Advisory Committee on Faculty Code and Regulations advises and is responsible to the Senate Executive Committee in overseeing university regulations and the Faculty Code.
Faculty Special Committee on Intellectual Property and Commercialization	The Advisory Committee on Intellectual Property Policy and Practice (ACIP3) is charged by the President and Faculty Senate Chair with reviewing the UW's Intellectual Property policies and practices and evaluating whether they further the UW's goals to stimulate the discovery, preservation, and dissemination of knowledge, information, art, and technology by and among faculty, students, staff, and the public.
Faculty Senate Committee on Planning & Budgeting	The Senate Committee on Planning and Budgeting advises the administration and informs the Faculty Senate on long-range planning, preparation of budgets, and distribution of funds, with a particular focus on faculty concerns.
Financial Aid Advisory Committee	There are short-term loan funds and limited grants available through the UW Financial Aid office for emergencies that may help cover tuition, housing, etc.,
Graduate Student Equity & Excellence Advisory Board	GSEE provides leadership and advocacy to achieve equitable representation, access and success for graduate students of color at the University of Washington.
Graduate School Core Programs Advisory Board - First Generation	A first-gen graduate student is a student who is in the first generation of their family to earn a bachelor's degree and who is now earning a graduate degree. Graduate Student Affairs (formerly Core Programs) is dedicated to supporting first-generation graduate students with innovative programming that amplifies their diverse voices and builds community at the University of Washington.
Graduate School Core Programs Advisory Board - International	The International Graduate Student Advisory Board (IGSAB) was started in fall 2017 to inform Core Programs' International Graduate Student Initiative, including resource sharing, event planning, advising and consultation.
Green Seed Fund	Seeks to engage faculty, students, and staff in opportunities that advance sustainable research while contributing to campus sustainability goals.
Hall Health Advisory Committee	Provides exceptional medical and mental health care to our diverse student body as well as established non-student patients. Though all of the services, work is to promote lifelong well-being, achievement, and resilience.

HUB Art Project Selection Committee	Acquiring and exhibiting art created exclusively by students supports their diverse artistic and creative abilities, encourages the expression of ideas and aesthetic concepts, and contributes significantly to the character of the HUB.
Institutional Animal Use & Care Committee	Primary oversight of animal use at the University of Washington is the responsibility of the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC)
Intellectual Property Management and Advisory Committee	It is charged by the President and Faculty Senate Chair with reviewing the UW's Intellectual Property policies and practices and evaluating whether they further the UW's goals to stimulate the discovery, preservation, and dissemination of knowledge, information, art, and technology by and among faculty, students, staff, and the public.
International Student Advisory Committee	It is dedicated to serving international graduate students on campus through tailored professional development events and connections to community and campus resources.
ISHIP Review Committee	It reviews student insurance applications
Library Fines Appeals Committee	It reviews applications to waive library fines in compliance with adjudicative procedures under the Washington Administrative Code.
Marsha L. Landolt Distinguished Graduate Mentor Award	To recognize outstanding mentoring of graduate students by faculty
President's Advisory Committee on Enterprise Risk Management	It is intended that the work of this executive-level committee will advance a broad understanding of and commitment to compliance and risk mitigation.
Provost Advisory Committee for Students	To seek and consider the input and advice of the UW student body through the Provost's Advisory Committee for Students (PACS) on Annual budgets, Tuition levels and state tuition policy proposals, Financial aid, Long-range budget and allocation planning
Research Advisory Board	The Research Advisory Board (RAB) provides the Vice-Provost of Research with counsel on a wide variety of matters relating to the University of Washington's research enterprise.
Services & Activities Fee Committee	The Services and Activities Fee is a student levied, student distributed fee to support and enhance the out of class experience of students at the University of Washington Seattle. The Services and Activities Fee provides ongoing operational and capital funding for programs, which protect and enrich the cultural, emotional, intellectual, physical, and social well being of the student.
Sponsorship Advisory Committee	The Sponsorship Advisory Committee shall advise on issues related to sponsorship, communicate broadly back to University units, and approve it.
Standing Committee on Accessibility	Current Standing Committees are: Communications, Scholarship and Professional Development, Finance, Legislative, Outreach and Membership Engagement, Special Events.
State Environmental Policy Act Advisory Committee (SEPA)	We oversee the rules and guidance for the state and we provide technical assistance to agencies, applicants, and citizens
Student Regent Selection Committee	The University of Washington Board of Regents has the authority and responsibility to govern and set policy across the University
Student Safety Advisory Board	The Student Safety Advisory Board (SSAB) was created to address issues and concerns that impact safety and security on the UW Seattle campus
Student Technology Fee	The Student Technology Fee (STF), collected along with tuition, is a student-levied, student distributed fee to provide and enhance technology and technological resources outside of the classroom for students
Task Force on Sexual Assault Prevention and Response	The University of Washington is committed to showing national leadership in tackling the problem of sexual assault on college campuses.
The HUB Board of Representatives	The HUB Board of Representatives, comprised of UW students, staff, faculty, and alumni, shall serve in an advisory capacity to the HUB
The HUB Office Space Assignments Committee (OSAC)	Office Space Assignment Committee (OSAC) is responsible for assigning student organization office space in the Sub-Basement of the HUB.
U-PASS Advisory Board	The Board works with advisers from UW Transportation Services and UW Student Life to represent student interest in the U-PASS program
University Bookstore Trustee	The University Book Store has been an integral part of UW and its students, faculty, and staff for 120 year.
University Transportation Committee	The University Transportation Committee (UTC) acts as expert counsel and a representative voice of the campus community on a wide variety of transportation
Use of University Facilities Committee	The Use of University Facilities (UUF) committee establishes policies, guidelines and procedures for use of university facilities by UW students, faculty and staff and by members of the surrounding community.
UW Alumni Association Board of Trustees	The Board of Trustees is responsible for managing UWAA affairs and setting the tone and direction for the association
UW Impact - Legislative Advocacy Committee	UW Impact is the UW Alumni Association's legislative advocacy program, dedicated to mobilizing alumni on behalf of restoring state support for the UW and public higher education.
UW Public Arts Commission	The primary purpose of this commission is to oversee the acquisition of artwork for the University campuses through the Washington State Arts Commission Art in Public Places Program

Mental Health Coalition	These primers developed by the Coalition for Psychology in Schools and Education provide information for classroom teachers to help them identify behaviors in the classroom that are symptomatic of mental health and other psychological issues, with the goal of directing teachers to appropriate resources for the students.
Hazing WAC Working Group	The University of Washington prohibits student organizations and their members from engaging individually or collectively in hazing activities.