

The Jacobs Research Funds
jacobsgrants.org • jacobsf@uw.edu

Final research report

Instructions. Please submit this report to the JRF by email within 30 days of finishing your project, and submit a copy to University of Washington Special Collections alongside your archived materials as well.

1. Project information

PI Name:
Other researchers:
Project title:
Year of award:
Today's date:
PI email:
PI phone:
PI address:
Research period:
Total received (please specify USD or CAD): $ ☐ USD ☐ CAD
Grant category: ☐ Individual grant ☐ Group grant ☐ Kinkade grant

2. Research accomplishments. List consultants you contacted or worked with, and dates and locations of your fieldwork. Did you meet your original research goals? Were there any unexpected victories?

...

3. Problems or setbacks. Were there any difficulties in the field or at home? Did you encounter difficulties with specific research goals? Were you able to collect data as planned? Was there sufficient time for data collection?

...

4. Financial accounting. Do not attach receipts.

Category	Original budget	Actual disbursement	Currency code
Consultants
Supplies
Travel
Accommodation
Archiving

Total (original currency)
Total (converted to USD or CAD)
Remaining (if applicable)	---		---

5. Archiving.

My field materials consist of (check all that apply):

☐ written notes ☐ audio materials ☐ video materials

My field materials are archived at (check all that apply):

☐ University of Washington Special Collections

☐ Other location—please specify:

...

I archived my materials on (date):

...

Please describe any special archiving arrangements:

...

Below, provide a detailed tabular summary of the materials you archived:

...