

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

LANGUAGE BIAS WORKSHOP

Spring 2024

May 15th 3:00-4:30pm

Denny Hall 159

This workshop will explore how to recognize and mitigate language bias on campus, whether in the classroom or in other contexts. It will address questions like "What is language bias?" and how does language bias affect our goal of creating a more welcoming, equitable and enriching environment for all individuals on campus?

This workshop is hosted by the UW working group on Linguistic bias which aims to engage all members of the UW community in the acknowledgment of language diversity on campus and the role of linguistic bias in diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Please complete the form to apply. There is limited capacity for this initial workshop.
