Carl V. Hill, Ph.D., M.P.H.
 Chief Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Officer
 Alzheimer’s Association

Optimizing health for the U.S. population requires eliminating disparities and addressing the multiple determinants of health. Major progress can be achieved by focusing on communities at greatest risk and eliminating barriers to quality health services. Cognitive health is no exception. Alzheimer’s and other dementias disproportionately impact African Americans, Hispanics and women. Learn more about how the Alzheimer’s Association is pursuing equity across the organization through research, programs and policy.
