

UW MEDICINE MEMORY AND BRAIN
WELLNESS CENTER PRESENTS:

DEMENTIA, STORYTELLING, & REPRESENTATION

a memory hub library book talk

may 22, 2023 | 1pm-2pm | free

Join facilitator Katie Freeman for a guided discussion on representations of dementia in literature. This talk will feature The Seattle Public Library's 2023 Seattle Reads pick The Swimmers by Julie Otsuka.

Pre-reading is welcomed, but not required. This program is suitable for those with and without dementia.

To register, email Katie at kqf@uw.edu

The Memory Hub

1021 columbia st, seattle, 98104

