

MEDEX Northwest Division of Physician Assistant Studies

Department of Family Medicine
School of Medicine, University of Washington

Faculty, Course Coordinator/Course Chair

The MEDEX Northwest Physician Assistant Program at the University of Washington seeks PA faculty members at its current training sites in Seattle, WA. There are openings for full-time and/or part-time positions. Faculty duties include teaching, coordinating or chairing at least one course, advising and evaluating students, admissions work and scholarly activity. Faculty assist in all aspects of the program including recruitment and the development, delivery and evaluation of the curriculum associated with the program. We are interested in candidates who are committed to developing and supporting diversity and inclusion in the work and learning environments.

Teaching experience, in either a classroom or clinical setting, is required. A bachelor's degree is required, master's degree preferred. Current NCCPA certification or equivalent and two years of clinical experience are required. These are non-tenure track appointments, renewable annually, at the faculty rank of Lecturer or Senior Lecturer, depending on experience and qualifications. Faculty members enjoy a generous benefits package. University of Washington faculty engage in teaching, research and service.

The University of Washington is an affirmative action and equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to, among other things, race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, status as protected veterans, or status as qualified individuals with disabilities.
