| Trimester |  | Before/After School |  | Other Program? | YES |

Explanation of Other Program: We don't offer these, but have had students participate in Running Start, community-based and/or online programs for Arabic, Hebrew, Chinese, and American Sign Language. Parents pay for the programs offered outside of SHS with the exception of 11-12 grade
Other Comments: I would thoroughly enjoy having Chinese and Arabic on campus. No solid plans exist right now due to teacher contract constraints, budget constraints, and scheduling constraints.

Explanation of Other Program: We do facilitate the teaching of Arabic at our school, but only twice a week after school through the One World Now program.
Other Comments: Our first- and second-year Spanish teacher uses the "Ven Conmigo text" and makes use of some of their online materials. We would like to be able to offer Mandarin Chinese and Arabic as regular classes, but we don't have a large enough student population o
