WOMEN'S HEALTH CARE UPDATE

Thursday & Friday

March 23 & 24, 2017

University of Washington Campus - Kane 130

Seattle, WA

Sponsored by UW School of Medicine
Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology
Office of Continuing Medical Education

TARGET AUDIENCE

Physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants and allied healthcare providers who provide primary health care for women.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This conference is an annual update for health care providers on current topics relevant to women's health. The topics are selected from suggestions from previous course attendees, areas with substantial change, and controversial subjects where medical opinions may differ. The purpose is to provide a clinical update for providers who care for women. The format is a series of short lectures followed by question and answer sessions.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this activity, attendees should be able to:

- Identify patients with opioid use disorder, understand contributing risk factors, and review health effects of marijuana use.
- Manage breast complaints.
- Apply new recommendations regarding use of primary HPV screening for cervical cancer, STI diagnosis and treatment, and work-up of thyroid nodules.
- Perform work-up of common urologic complaints and use of pessary for pelvic organ prolapse.
- Assist in reproductive life planning including counseling regarding fertility, ovarian reserve, and contraception guided by MEC 2016.
- Identify patients at risk for genetic syndromes by targeted family history and genetic testing.
- Assess and treat common sleep disorders.
- Manage menopausal symptoms.

ACCREDITATION

Accreditation with Commendation

The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 16.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
