PCCE Members Research Survey

All are welcome so please pass along this invitation to anyone who you think may be interested

PMID: 24182371 [PubMed

Sprung CL, Danis M, Iapichino G, Artigas A, Kesecioglu J, Moreno R, Lippert A, Curtis JR,

Resilience and psychosocial outcomes of caregivers of children with cancer; Pediatric Blood

Rosenberg AR, Wolfe J, Bradford M, Shaffer M, Yi

patients whose care is managed by a primary palliative care clinic. Journal of Hospice and Pallia-

Nursing Journal, 5, 4

Oncology, 2013Aug [Epub ahead of print].

Touch, Caring, and Cancer: randomized controlled trial of a multimedia caregiver education

Collinge W, Kahn J, Walton T, Kozak L, Bauer

Alexander SC, Tulsky JA, Curtis JR. Interprofessional Communication Skills Training for Seri-

B, Christianson P, Arnold RW, O'Connor K,

Conducting Difficult Conversations: Best Practices for Training Clinicians

Ardith Doorenbos voted in as Co incorporation among members of the palliative care community, and to track the progress of palliative research and increase the number of palliative care researchers at the University of Washington come and have developed three main goals for the next three years and the future of the Palliative

The PCCE has also created a Community Advisory Board. This Board serves as a place for people which was a huge success. We gathered a large, interdisciplinary group of researchers and system-progress sessions. We also held our first Palliative Care Research Think Tank on October 31 site.

tion. Third, Dr. Mitchell Levy will be conducting a seminar on

On December 6th and 7th, the PCCE will hold a workshop featuring Dr. Mitchell Levy, Profes-

Stu, the developer and director of UWMC Pallia-fee for Social Workers. Details about each event are below and Saturday, December 7th and offer CME, CNE and CEU

COST

$50 additional for CME/CNE/CEU credit

Let

444

American Lung Association Endowed Chair in other palliative care medical gray zone. He is a diplomate in the American Board of Pulmonary American Board of Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine, Dr. Edward Honig is a specialist in 9:00

of

7 Educational Workshop

www.uwpalliativecarecenter.com

pallcntr@uw.edu