Definition and Guiding Question

LESSON	LEARNING EPISODE
For the purpose of this STARTALK template a lesson is defined as a single learning experience lasting no more than ninety minutes. Learning experiences occur both in the classroom and/or in other settings. Longer blocks of time will involve several learning episodes and lesson plans.	For the purpose of this STARTALK template a learning episode is defined as a learning experience that addresses a specific aspect of a learning target or can-do statement. Learning episodes typically provide a limited amount of input with time allowed for guided and independent practice. The amount of time allotted for a learning episode is approximately equivalent to the age of the learner and will rarely be more than twenty minutes.

Questions to Consider Before and During Lesson Planning

Do the activities in the lesson <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ provide sufficient opportunities for understanding new words before expecting production? ▪ provide multiple, varied opportunities for students to hear new words/expressions used in highly visualized contexts that make meaning transparent? ▪ provide students with an authentic purpose for using words and phrases? ▪ engage all students (as opposed to just one or two students at a time)? ▪ give students a reason for needing to/wanting to pay attention and be on task? ▪ vary in the level of intensity and the amount of physical movement required? ▪ take an appropriate amount of time considering the age of the learner? ▪ make the learner, not the teacher, the active participant?
