

WORLD LANGUAGE SUMMIT: THE HIGH SCHOOL TO COLLEGE CONNECTION

University of Washington, Saturday, January 23, 2016

The UW STARTALK program

invites you to join language teaching colleagues from the University of Washington and around the state for our third STARTALK-sponsored heritage language workshop. The summit will feature a series of panels with teachers, administrators, and students to inform us of the current system of High School to College Connections: Advanced Placement (AP) and International Baccalaureate (IB), College in the High School, Running Start, Summer Language Programs, Competency-Based Credits and the Seal of Biliteracy. In the afternoon we'll explore Meeting the needs of Heritage Language Learners and Dual Language Students... in College: What are the successes and the challenges of the "system" that has evolved over time?

Info & Registration: <https://depts.washington.edu/startalk/wlsummit.php>

Cost: Free, plus 5 free clock hours. Morning refreshments and lunch provided

When: January 23, 2016
9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Where: University of Washington
Mary Gates Hall 241

Co-sponsors of this year's World Language Summit:

University of Washington: STARTALK Program, Language Learning Center, Department of Linguistics, UW Language Immersion Committee, Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies, Center for Global Studies, Center for West European Studies, The Herbert J. Ellison Center for Russian, East European and Central Asian Studies (REECAS), East Asia Center, Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, Spanish and Portuguese Studies, Confucius Institute of the State of Washington, Center for Spanish Studies

In addition: Dual Language Washington, Washington Association for Language Teaching (WAFLT), Washington Association for Bilingual Education (WABE), One America, One City Project, Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI)