Join Linda Egnatz, Executive Director of the Global Seal of Biliteracy, to celebrate this new international initiative sponsored by Avant Assessment, and recognize students from the Seattle area who have already qualified for the Global Seal of Biliteracy at the Working Fluency (Advanced) level. The Global Seal of Biliteracy is an opportunity for all language users and students who are not eligible for a state seal to earn recognition for their language proficiency skills. It is by design inclusive, embracing all languages and learners, with the intent to provide equal access and expanded opportunity. Come learn how the Global Seal of Biliteracy is providing new opportunities for Heritage Language Learners.
