

Flew Away But Still Not Free

I am just trying to get to the top of my fence. I am trying to get everything I need in life. I am just trying to be independent. Trying to work hard just being myself. Attempting to face my fears and challenging myself. Blending in with my surroundings standing out around my family. Working hard to earn respect. Losing myself at stupid times, finding myself at hard times when I need it most. Earning respect and sharing it. Helping anyone who needs it. Learning how to take care of myself then everyone else. Learning that you are born alone, and then that you just die alone. Being myself and no one else. Not caring about the trends just making sure I am keeping up with reality.

I am just a girl trying to find my passion trying to be myself yet trying to fit in. Trying to go through life without any troubles. Trying to go through life without any mistakes. Jumping into life. Ready for the ride and ready for the trip. I am just me. I am no one anyone wants me to be. I am the real me, making sure I am free. I am jumping into the ocean of all of my dreams. I am making friends and making enemies. I am learning my lesson. I am working hard. I am just trying to be the real me. I am flying away just trying to be free.
