Clinic Updates

New Appointments

The Autism Center is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Jessica Greenson to Director of Clinical Services and Fritz Reitz to Technical Services Manager.

Dr. Greenson, a licensed psychologist with expertise in the assessment and treatment of children with autism spectrum disorders, has worked at the UWAC since 2001. Dr. Greenson will now provide oversight and direction for all clinical services offered by the UW Autism Center.

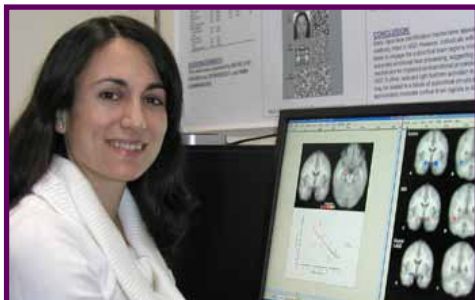

Some of you know Fritz from his 13 years as a research engineer at the CHDD Instrumentation Development Lab. Fritz has an extensive background in engineering, biochemistry, crafts, and being handy in general. As UWAC Technical Services Manager, Fritz is covering our IT as well as experimental needs.

Research Updates

Innovative New Scientist Award

Congratulations to Dr. Natalia Kleinhans who received a Biobehavioral Research Award for Innovative New Scientists (BRAINS). Her project will examine how neurobiological mechanisms contribute to atypical brain habituation in individuals with ASD.

Children between 8-12 years of age with and without ASD will participate in the study.

Training and Outreach Updates

Outreach Events

We want to thank all of the generous golfers who showed their support for the Lily's Foundation and the UW Autism Center at the third annual Tee It Up Fore Autism Awareness event. It was a wonderful day and we are looking forward to next year!

We also had a great time at the Seattle Mariners game supporting Autism Speaks. Thanks to everyone who stopped by our booth to say hi!

Join our Autism Speaks Walk Team!

Save-the-Date for the 2014 Puget Sound Walk Now for Autism Speaks! The walk will be held on Saturday, September 27th at the Seattle Center. The UWAC will have a walk team and a booth at the resource fair. We hope to see you there!
