

Supporting Secondary-Aged Students with ASD: 8 Tips for an Inclusive Classroom

Making inclusion meaningful for all students is a difficult task! In this training, participants will learn 8 tips and strategies to support inclusion for secondary students on the autism spectrum (ASD). A brief overview of ASD will lay the groundwork for how to adapt classroom instruction to meet the needs of autistic students. Strategies to modify assignments that can increase motivation and participation, as well as incentives and general behavioral strategies will also be addressed in this training.
