

Incorporating Autistic Perspective and Principles of Neurodiversity into ABA Practice

Incorporating Autistic Perspective and Principles of Neurodiversity into ABA Practice webinars will explore important topics related to the intersection of autistic self-advocacy, neurodiversity principles, and ABA interventions. Participants will have the opportunity to evaluate their current practices and reflect on what it means to incorporate lived experience and evidenced based practices into an effective, ethical, and empathetic ABA practice. BACB CEUs included.

Who should attend: BCBAs and BCaBAs; providers who work with autistic individuals using ABA strategies

Modality: Online asynchronous

BACB CEU/Clock hours: BACB CEU and Clock Hour available

Instructor: Kathryn Holley, M.Ed., BCBA

See reverse for registration links.
Advance registration is required.
