

NEWS

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
LAW LIBRARIANSHIP ALUMNI

May 1987

1987 Law Librarianship Graduates - Fieldwork

Kris Cheney will be with Steve Margeton and Mickey Byrnes at the U.S. Supreme Court Library.

Ann Fletcher will spend her fieldwork at the University of Nebraska Law Library with Sally Wise.

Annetta Lawson will stay in Seattle and work with Jim McArdle at the King County Law Library.

My thanks to these fieldwork hosts who play such an important role in educating law librarians.

1987 AALL Annual Meeting

As you know, the student members of AALL pay a daily fee to attend the AALL Annual Meeting, a fee that does not include tickets to meals and social functions. Because I feel these are important functions for these students to attend, I will act as a clearinghouse for unused tickets. Please leave for me (I will be at the Hyatt Regency) any tickets you or your friends do not plan to use. The students will be appreciative. Our conventions are expensive these days, and the cost of these functions is virtually prohibitive.

Alumni Reunion

We hope you all will plan to attend the alumni breakfast in Chicago July 6, 1987. It looks like an early evening affair in Chicago will conflict with a lot of other fun things, so we will try the Monday morning breakfast again. We are having real food again this year, at a cost of $13.25 per person. Please complete and return the attached reservation sheet at your earliest convenience. Hope to see you then!