1986 Law Librarianship Graduates

All of the 1986 graduates are employed and in the following places:

Timothy Blake is now a Reference Librarian at Loyola University Law Library in New Orleans.

Mary Mahoney is Head of Public Services at Marquette University Law Library in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Chris O'Rourke is Media Services Librarian at McGeorge School of Law Library in Sacramento, California.

Lisa Satterlund is at the University of Bridgeport Law Library as a Reference Librarian.

Yongman Zhang, from the People's Republic of China, currently is working at the Gallagher Law Library and also is gaining law library experience by working half days at the Seattle law firm of Karr, Tuttle, Koch, Campbell, Mawer and Morrow.

Alumni Records

As a step toward a directory of UW Law Librarianship Alumni, we would like to update our records. Please send a complete employment history since graduation, using the enclosed form (or send a copy of a recent resume) to us. In addition, please include a recent photo, black and white preferably, and no larger than 4" x 5". At this time, the directory might include, for each graduate, the following:

- photo
- current title and employer
- history of employment
- other professional accomplishments

Do you have other suggestions? If so, please let me know.

1987 Law Librarianship Students

Three lawyers are enrolled in the Law Librarianship Program this year:

Kristin Cheney
JD 1984 UPS
2 years as Deputy Prosecuting Attorney
Ann Fletcher
JD 1986 U. Nebraska Law College 4 years experience in libraries in periodicals, cataloging and serials and 1 year of serials and reference experience in the law library

Annetta Lawson
JD 1986 UPS
EdM 1968 Temple
8 years of teaching in the Marin County schools

Newsletter

Is this communication device a good idea? What do you want to know about? Gallagher Law Library? What alumni are doing? Again--your ideas and suggestions are welcome.

Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library

Advance (Gaylord Bros.) Manufacturing's movable compact shelving was installed in the basement of Condon Hall throughout the summer. A $115,000 capital expenditure grant paid for all tracks and carpet for a 3,222 square foot space and 8,604 linear feet of shelf space. The staff spent two weeks in September moving every book (except those in the Reading Room) in the library to some other location! The basement contains all of the Dewey collection, all records and briefs, early runs of Federal Register and the Congressional Record, and all superseded texts. Floor 4 was consolidated so that all old editions and displaced volumes of state codes, state session laws and state attorney general opinions are together on the west side of the Documents Office. Floor 5 now contains all LC classified material A-KF9999 and floor 6 continues with KFA-Z. All periodicals were moved to floor 7 and English and foreign language periodicals were interfiled into one alphabet. A lot of work and a lot of record-changing, but the result is a collection with fewer separate location codes and a user population who seem to have adapted quickly.

-Penny Hazelton