HEALTH DISPARITIES IN WASHINGTON STATE

Dr. Federico Cruz-Urbe, Vice President of Clinical Affairs, SEAMAR Community Health Centers

Federico Cruz-Urbe, MD, MPH, has had a 25-year career in public health. He has managed public health departments in four states at the local and state levels. Most recently, Dr. Cruz-Urbe was the director of the Tacoma/Pierce County Health Department for 15 years (1992-2007). From 2008 to 2013, he and his wife established and ran a diabetes control project in southern Nicaragua. For the last 12 months, Dr. Cruz-Urbe has been working as the Vice President of Clinical Affairs for Sea Mar Community Health Centers based in Seattle. His current projects involve developing specialty care services and a care management system for Sea Mar.
